Ultimate Scorpio™

Enzymes are responsible for such important bodily functions as digestion, building bones and tissues, and aiding in detoxification. Many allergies stem from the lack of certain enzymes. Replenish your enzyme supply with Ultimate Scorpio™. The inability to digest proteins and fats can cause poor absorption of nutrients. Ultimate Scorpio™ is formulated to support all aspects of digestion, including absorption. It provides significant support for normal digestive function.

- Supports and maintains digestive health
- Contains a proprietary enzyme complex*
